COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY ALESSANDRA ADELAIDE NEEDLEWORKS - AAN

This time designer Alessandra Adelaide's finds inspiration in a mix of flowers and berries, the tiny berries vying for attention among the classic roses and larger flowers. The delicate and graceful stems play an important role in this composition, you could even imagine replacing the crossstitching by some stemstitch in these parts.

As for the other patterns in the series, you can make so many personal variations based on the chart. You could keep it quiet and simple, cross stitching the whole pattern in a single color, a solid or a gently overdyed tone. .

Our suggestion would be to pick a delicate palette of colors, such as the subdued but gorgeous colors of DMC linen floss, and delicately "color in" all the parts of the butterfly and the flowers. Naturally, you would pick a cream or natural raw linen fabric for the background.

Whichever way you decide to personalize your stitching, this pattern will make a beautiful cushion which you could pair with another of the pretty patterns in the series such as the Starflower, Rose & Butterfly and Garofano selvatico designs.
