BLACKWORK CHART

A delightful series of 8 mini patterns that can be used for gift tags, cards, small book covers and more! The pattern includes instructions on how to make them into gift tags. They work very well to with cards with a heart shaped cut-out window.

These patterns are dominantly blackwork designs, meaning they are worked in backstitch, with charts similar to counted cross stitch charts. What make them special is that Tamara used some very colorful multicolor threads from the DMC Color Variations range. They look vert pretty wether on a white or colored Aida background. Some patterns include seed beads adding a bit of extra shine.
