High Seas band (Nautical decor)

CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Faby Reilly Designs

Here's a refreshing seascape by Faby Reilly, in a beautiful palette of blues and red. The band-like design reads continuously, a bit like a comic. To the left, a battered lighthouse, to the right, a tiny sailboat fighting its way against the high seas. And all round is an amazing scene of crushing waves and tiny fish playing in the surf.

The format is ideal for any nautical home decor, such bathroom towels. The band is continuous but can be easily divided into sections so you could apply it to any size of towels (maximum 20 inch). We suggest washing the band and towel separately at your regular laundry temperature before applying the band to the towel. This will avoid any trouble in case either one shrinks.

This cross stitch pattern is also very nice for customizing little boys clothes (such as Tshirts or Sweat shirts). In this case, we suggest stitching it on waste canvas and selecting a single element of the pattern, such as the lighthouse or boat.
