Petite Faby - Strawberry pincushion

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART DESIGNED FOR CHILDREN TO STITCH BY FABY REILLY DESIGNS

"Stitches for Titches"

a cross stitch project especially designed to be stitched by a child.

Here is a beautiful project for a child to learn to cross stitch. It's a gorgeous strawberry design with lovely appealing DMC colors. The child-friendly pattern and instructions are beautifully laid out, and the project includes detailed step by step pictures for both stitching and completing the project. This small cushion is reversible (the chart includes the strawberry flower pattern on the reverse). It is the perfect size for making a dollhouse bed cushion (see picture opposite) or a small pincushion for a child's first sewing kit. The flower pattern on the reverse is slightly more complex. Depending on the age and ability of the child, you might want to assist her for completing the backstitch.

A cross stitch pattern designed by Faby Reilly for children to cross stitch.
