CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Gracewood Stitches

This pattern is designed in the Assisi style with the background being stitched and leaving motifs blank. The chart is part of Gracewood's Calendar Collection of 12 patterns each reflecting a month with both their colors and themes reminiscent of their time of year.

In the designer's own words:

"June is the month everything is so very bright and green on Gracewood. Roses are filling the air with heavenly scents and the big white headed hydrangeas sway in the breezes.

In this design I wanted to capture the abundance of beauty that explodes around us during this soft time of year and thought of these motifs for a damask table runner."

Creative Poppy says:

This design is stitched in a palette of 2 solid greens, one lighter, one darker, creating a damask effect on a checkered background. You could easily switch to your very own palette of colors, say pink or blue depending on the decorative use of the piece.
