Brought to you by cross stitch designer Lesley Teare here is a chart chockful of beautifully detailed Western mini-motifs.

A great Indian chief on horseback watches over the plain, besides him is a large headdress with feathers. The chart includes many indian weapons including bows and arrows, but also a dagger. There is a cute little indian canoe, and nicely decorated tipis. Finally many small decorative objects with pearls, strings and feathers including a magnificent pipe embellished with a dream catcher.

Next are the cowboys, rodeo riding wild bulls and lassoing cattle. Here a wagon races at high speed to avoid attacks, there a log cabin is proudly decorated with cattle horns. A couple dons cowboy hats and boots, ready to go dancing.

The cross stitch chart also includes the wild animals, buffaloes and coyotes and also a snake,

You can use these mini patterns to adorn greeting cards or small items for children. The maximum size of the largest pattern is 46 x 41 stitches in size or 3 1/4 x 3 inch (8.5 x 8 cm). The small ones about 20 x 20 stitches or 1 1/2 x 1 1/2 inch (4 x 4 cm).

Note: includes fractional stitches for extra detail.
