PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Marie-Anne Réthoret-Mélin

Part of Marie-Anne Rethoret-Melin's wonderful collection of creative Christmas ornament projects, here come the miniature houses that can either be hung from the tree or paired with some wood or foliage to create a little Christmas village. There are 3 houses with matching but varied cross stitch motifs: the Snowflake House, the Red Garland House and the Growing Hearts House. Metallic highlights of golden light shine through the windows, giving them a warm, welcoming feel and snow on the window sills shows it's a cold winter night.

The devil is always in the detail and that is what makes a really good design. This is no regular cube. Notice how the designer has given the walls and roofs a unique shape that makes the houses look so cute. When mounting the walls, you will need some thin but rigid felt to add a bit of structure (although you could also use iron-on adhesive if you are more comfortable with it).

The houses measure approximately 3 inch (8 cm) high. The cross stitch chart comes with a well-thought out tutorial to guide you through every step.
