Chef's Kitchen (7 cook motifs & Alphabet)

CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Perrette Samouloff

Chef and helpers are all super busy, one making pancakes, another beating eggs, the third cook melting chocolate in a saucepan. In the dining room in the meantime they are serving champagne, petit fours and a huge cake.

This charming cross stitch pattern can be used to decorate a kitchen wall. However you can also combine motifs and alphabet to stitch a matching apron pocket, a tea towel or a cookbook cover, as many other personalized gift ideas with a name. The chart includes a few layout examples (see opposite) and an alphabet to compose the text of your choice.

Creative Poppy tip:

Make a fabric book cover and slide the book or blank notebook under the flaps. You can also fit the cover by whip stitching the cover onto the book as in this tutorial by Mary Corbett.
