Description:

Happy childhood collection:
The geese (large pattern)

Let's pick up our bikes and go visit the farm! The geese are out and about but beware of their beaks! The sun's shining, butterflies are flying and there's a whole family of hedgehogs keeping us company. What a beautiful day!

Suggestion: use these patterns to build a soft textile story book!

You can use this pattern together with the matching "Sheep" and "Little chicks" pattern to create a little story book entirely cross stitched by you! Make up your own sequence and stitch elements onto several "pages". Vary the color of the background fabric. The pattern works beautifully for a small children's book.

This pattern is also available in a smaller format if you don't have enough time to stitch the larger pattern.
