Happy childhood collection: The sheep (small pattern)

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY PERRETTE SAMOUILOFF

Perrette Samouiloff has a special gift for depicting children and animals in cross stitch. Look how sweet and expressive each of these farm animals look, in particular the new born lamb trembling on its legs.

There is a summer feel in this pattern. One little girl carries a basket of cherries, another is wearing a straw hat. Surrounding them are fields of poppies and cornflowers.

You can rearrange motifs as you wish. See example below with boy, sheep and lamb.

The sheep is part of a mini series of farm animal patterns. If you like this one, you might consider collecting the other ones such as The geese and Little chicks

This pattern is the smaller version, with an ABC, of the larger pattern The sheep.
