Description:

Seaside motif sampler (large pattern)

COUNTED CROSS STITCH CHART BY PERRETTE SAMOUILOFF

Counted Cross stitch pattern with exquisite bird and children mini motifs combined sampler-style. Each element of the design can also be stitched individually if you wanted to stitch on other items such as terry towels, a beach bag, a stitched envelope or anything else the pattern might inspire you.

The pattern is full of interesting detail such as the fishing nets, the flowers and the two children's activities on the beach. The birds which are beautifully charted with special attention given to the different species. You may refer to Perrette Samouiloff's free tutorial for the three quarter stitch used for the tips of the beaks of the seagulls, a small detail that makes the whole difference.

The pattern shown here is the larger version. The designer also offers a smaller chart if you have less time for stitching.
