In the designer's own words:

The centuries-old tradition of Morris folk dancing in an English village is all that is best about early summer in the countryside. Our folkies, with bells, stick crosses, handkerchiefs, floral wreaths and arches tied with streaming ribbons, perform their pretty dance beneath the bunting and flags of St George, and the little dogs watch on.

Creative Poppy says:

The Folkies cross stitch pattern collection designed by Riverdrift House is a series of designs displaying regional folk costumes, this one featuring the traditional folk dances of rural England. These Folkies look like they can't wait to start dancing and enjoying themselves.
