Belle

CROSS STITCH PATTERN READY TO DOWNLOAD, DESIGNED BY Shannon Christine Designs

The leitmotif of this cross stitch piece is the rose. This elegant and pensive young woman holds one in her right hand, and in her left hand she carries a glass bell preciously encasing another rose. More roses serve as ornaments in the folds of her dress.

"Belle" wears a typical eighteenth century costume, a characteristic silhouette of the royal courts of Europe, with a very narrow waist and a very wide skirt. The skirt is raised in several points, and reveals the fabric underneath, a white satin with gold embroidered Fleurs de Lys motifs, the emblem of French royalty. The type of dress requires waist and bodice to be retained by a corset, and the shape of the skirt is obtained by overlapping skirts and petticoats over basket shapes.

The cross stitch chart is designed for expert stitchers looking for a bit of a challenge. It includes fractional cross stitches as well as many beads (including 9 Swarovski beads with a ruby effect) and finally metallic threads. The stitched result however is outstanding, with a very precious feel.

The pattern includes extra zoom-in charts for detailed areas (face etc...)
