Warm up your hands with a delicious cup of hot coffee!

This is Nose warmer, a happy little coffee design for Christmas and winter stitching and gift giving. It is part of the beautiful collection of Seasonal tea & Coffee cross stitch patterns designed by Deborah A. Dick of Tempting Tangles. Collect them all!

Saying it in stitches: Eggnog latte, Java, Raspberry, Mocha, White Chocolate, who can resist the temptation?

The traditional French enamel style coffee pot is adorned with a cute Reindeer and Christmas tree. Embellishments include a steaming diamond patterned cup, snowflakes, a pair of tiny green mittens as well as a supercute raspberry (see below right) made of dark seed beads.

Designer's tips:

"if worked on 30-32 count fabric over 2 is just the right size fabric for the petite glass beads to fit perfectly on the raspberry. Do not use an ivory fabric – the snowflakes will not show up clearly; white or antique white is best."

This mostly cross stitch pattern includes a couple of backstitches and four sided stitches. It comes with both a color overview chart, and a detailed black and white chart.
